

The Cat Gets Wet

Drip, drop,
the tap will not stop.
Pull, push,
we can see it rush.
Glug, glug,
I will get a jug.
Splish, splash,
Mum says, "You must dash!"
Splosh, splat,
there is some on our cat!

Talk about the answers to these questions:

What is wrong with the tap?

What does the poet say that they will get?

What does Mum say?

What do you think will happen next?

The Cat Gets Wet

60-Second Reading Intervention

Name: _____

Date: _____

Text Type: Poetry	Total Text Word Count: 36
Common Exception Words covered: I, is, our, pull, push, says, some, the, there, we, you

Comprehension Questions/Answers:
Content Domain	Question	Possible Answers	Tick if Correct
 1b: Retrieval	What is wrong with the tap?	The tap is broken/leaking. The tap will not stop running/dripping.
 1b: Retrieval	What does the poet say that they will get?	The poet says that they will get a jug.
 1b: Retrieval	What does Mum say?	Mum says, "You must dash!"
 1e: Prediction	What do you think will happen next?	Accept any sensible prediction, such as: Mum will fix the tap. Someone will get a towel to dry the cat. The cat will run out of the room. The bathroom will become very wet.
Comments:

Text	E	S-C	Errors M S V	S-C M S V
Drip, drop,
the tap will not stop.
Pull, push,
we can see it rush.
Glug, glug,
I will get a jug.
Splish, splash,
Mum says, "You must dash!"
Splosh, splat,
there is some on our cat!
Words Read in 60 Seconds:

Running Record Analysis

Errors			Self-Correction			Reading Level
M	S	V	M	S	V	Easy	Appropriate	Challenging
						More than 95% accuracy	90 - 95%	Less than 90% accuracy
						Accuracy:	%	S-C Rate:
								1: