

Glen's Odd School

"How was school today?" asks Nan as Glen sits down on the chair.

"It was good," says Glen.

"Just good? Did you do much?" nags Nan.

"No. We just went to the Moon," sighs Glen.

"THE MOON?!" wails Nan.

"Yes," says Glen, "and I met a friend."

Talk about the answers to these questions:

Where is Glen sitting?

Who is Glen talking to?

Where did Glen go?

Who do you think Glen's friend could be?

Glen's Odd School

60-Second Reading Intervention

Name: _____

Date: _____

Text Type: FictionTotal Text Word Count: 47Common Exception Words covered:

a, asks, do, friend, I, no, says, school, the, to, today, was, we, you

Comprehension Questions/Answers:

Content Domain	Question	Possible Answers	Tick if Correct
 1b: Retrieval	Where is Glen sitting?	Glen is sitting on a chair. Glen is sitting with Nan.
 1b: Retrieval	Who is Glen talking to?	Glen is talking to (his) Nan.
 1b: Retrieval	Where did Glen go?	Glen went to school. Glen went to the Moon.
 1d: Inference	Who do you think Glen's friend could be?	Accept any sensible inference, such as: Glen's friend could be an alien. His friend might be someone from his class that he has never met before. Glen's friend might be an astronaut.

Comments:

Text	E	S-C	Errors M S V	S-C M S V
"How was school today?" asks Nan as Glen sits down on the chair.
"It was good," says Glen.
"Just good? Did you do much?" nags Nan.
"No. We just went to the Moon," sighs Glen.
"THE MOON?!" wails Nan.
"Yes," says Glen, "and I met a friend."
Words Read in 60 Seconds:

Running Record Analysis

Errors			Self-Correction			Reading Level
M	S	V	M	S	V	Easy	Appropriate	Challenging
						More than 95% accuracy	90 - 95%	Less than 90% accuracy
						Accuracy:	%	S-C Rate:
								1: