

Lent is a special time when we – think of Jesus often

– think of others first

– do something extra

– give up something because we remember how much Jesus loves us.