

Stations of the Cross

On Good Friday

The reading of the Passion of Jesus according to John is an important part of the Good Friday Liturgy. These are some of the people who have a place in the events. You may want to find out more about them.

Simon Peter

John tells us about what Simon Peter did in the garden when Jesus was arrested and what happened later at the high priest's house. How do you think this helped Peter to become a better disciple?

Pontius Pilate

The Roman governor was puzzled by Jesus and wanted to set him free. Why do you think he did not free Jesus?

The Women

John names three women who stood near the cross of Jesus. Who are they?

The Disciple

One disciple who was there with the women is named. Who is he? What did Jesus ask him to do?

Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus

Both were disciples in secret, but when Jesus died, they showed their love and respect. How did they do this?
